Power Disc Golf Academy Championship Series Qualifier

Cole County Park Disc Golf Course – Player Information

Good morning everyone,

Thank you for registering for the Power Disc Golf Academy Championship Series presented by Discraft, Loot, and Encore Customs! We're excited to have you join us today at Cole County Park Disc Golf Course. With 30 players signed up, we're looking at a great turnout, especially with the potential for weather moving in later in the day. We truly appreciate everyone coming out to compete and support the series, and we're looking forward to a great day of disc golf.

Schedule

This event will consist of one round with assigned tee times, and all players will begin on Hole 1.

Upon arrival, all players must check in with the Tournament Directors at Tournament Central, located by the practice basket and throwing net.

Please plan enough time for warm-up prior to your round.

Players are required to be at Hole 1 no later than 5 minutes before their scheduled tee time. Failure to be at the starting hole on time will result in a two-stroke penalty in accordance with PDGA Rule 4.05.C.1.

Pro and AM payouts, finale invitations, and the event recap email will be sent out within 48 hours of the completion of the event.

Amateur Player Pack

- $5 credit to the Power DGA Player Pack Store
- $5 discount for the April 4th Power DGA Qualifier at Bugar Park in Washington, Missouri hosted by Ben Hoemann

Ace Pot

The current Ace Pot is $600. If no ace is hit, the ace pot rolls over for all future Power Disc Golf Academy Championship Series events.

Final Note

Please officiate as a group in accordance with current PDGA rules. For questions about a disc's flight, position, or status, the group will make the determination by vote. The thrower may briefly state their opinion, but may not argue or lobby for an outcome. If needed, play a provisional and discuss the situation with the Tournament Director or an Official as soon as practical after the hole or round. Tournament Director rulings are final.
